Description

Ara is a 5 year old dark bay filly that stands at 15.3 hands. . She is a lovely seal bay mare with fabulous movement and very forward she has had 160 days schooling under saddle working 5-6 days a week as well as many hours training on the trail. She moves nicely under saddle going over creeks and out alone. Ara will make a great dressage/ western dressage or trail horse. She is schooling side passes, turn on haunches and forehand, lunges, goes in trailer by self, ties, picks up feet for farrier, and WTC on cue with a loose rein, is mostly trained to seat and leg cues, She is desensitized to bags and whip, backs up, loves attention, no bad habits etc. She has been trained using methods from Clinton Anderson and Warwick Schueller and has all the fundamentals down as well as the intermediate. Her dam has Champion Yorktown, Champion Wing Commander, Champion Valley View Supreme, Chubasco and Stonewall, and the famous Peavine bloodlines. These are top performance bloodlines. Her now deceased sire also has fantastic performance bloodlines that carry Pyt a 4 times National Champion who had great movement and was a great performance horse. He had 4 of his get imported back to Holland. She has been handled since birth and will make someone a great sporthorse. Her price is subject to change with more training.
