

American Saddlebred broodmare

$ 5,000

Description

Starla is a lovely palomino mare who has been used as a broodmare for several years. She is broke and currently being ridden on trails and in the arena 4 days a week. She goes over creeks, WTC and loves to get out and go can lead or follow without issues and moves out nicely. She has good ground manners, she lunges, backs up, ties, trailer loads, picks up feet, is barefoot, and good with farrier and has a soft mouth. She is a proven broodmare and has had several buckskin foals out of a Friesian Stallion. She produces color and will make a great broodmare for someone or a great trail horse. She can also be offered with a breeding to a Friesian stallion or a Champagne Georgian Grande.
